La faim
bouffe
l'avenir.

Qui a des semences peut
semer l'avenir.
